Dear :

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [JPS/57/2018]

On March 8, 2017, the Department of Justice and Public Safety received your request for access to the following records:

"I kindly request information pertaining to Order in Council #OC2018-21. Cabinet authorized the transfer of $175,000 from the Contingency Reserve to the Department of Justice and Public Safety, for payment to an employee in respect of civil litigation arising from employment. Please provide employee's name, job title and basis for the payment."

Please be advised that a decision has been made by the Deputy Minister of the Department of Justice and Public Safety to provide access to some of the requested information:

The basis for this payment was a settlement in resolution of an employment matter involving this individual. It involved a lump sum payment, which required the approval of Cabinet and an order in council. Ordinarily, settlements involve continuation of benefits such as payroll, which do not require such lump sum payments.

Access to the employee's name and position title, has been refused in accordance with the following exception to disclosure, as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act):

40(1) The head of a public body shall refuse to disclose personal information to an applicant where the disclosure would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's personal privacy.

As required by 8(2) of the Act, we have severed information that is unable to be disclosed and have provided you with as much information as possible. In accordance with your request for a copy of the records, the appropriate copies have been enclosed.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Please be advised that responsive records will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you.
