Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [JPS/039/2015]

Dear [redacted],

This is to confirm that on October 1, 2015, the Department of Justice and Public Safety received your request for access to the following records/information:

A copy of a brief delivered to the justice department, dated on or about Dec. 16, 2013, from the Newfoundland and Labrador association of provincial court judges. This brief is in response to a proposal by the government to amend Bill 16 of the Provincial Court Act and “remove the requirement for judges ... to meet once yearly.” And any other correspondence between the minister and the association relating to this matter, in any and all formats, including paper and electronic.

While the Department does have records (6 pages) which are responsive to your request, a decision has been made by the Deputy Minister for the Department of Justice and Public Safety to refuse access to these records in accordance with the following exception to disclosure, as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act):

5. (1) This Act applies to all records in the custody of or under the control of a public body but does not apply to
(a) a record in a court file, a record of a judge of the Court of Appeal, Trial Division, or Provincial Court, a judicial administration record or a record relating to support services provided to the judges of those courts;

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the decision to refuse access to the requested information, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.
The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John’s, NL A1B 3V8

Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309
Facsimile: (709) 729-6500

You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

Please be advised that responsive records will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the responsive records posted to the Office of Public Engagement’s website within one business day following the applicable period of time.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me by telephone at 709-729-7906, or ncroke@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,
