Dear [Redacted]

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [OSW/010/2019]

On February 17, 2019, the Office for the Status of Women (OSW) received a request from you for access to the following records (File #: WP/3/019):

Any emails, reports, or other materials sent from or received by the Minister and/or Deputy Minister from December 2015 to the date of this request regarding the sex trade, prostitution or human trafficking.

On August 12, 2019, the OSW received a similar request from you for access to the following records:

Any information (including emails sent from or received by the minister or staff), policies, analysis, emails from the public to the minister, etc. related to sex work, prostitution, or human trafficking. Time period November 2018 to the date of this request.

The OSW has completed a secondary search for responsive records for the time period of November 2018 to February 17, 2019. No additional responsive records for this time period were identified. As all previously identified records, up to and including those from February 17, 2019, were forwarded to you on March 15, 2019, the enclosed responsive records are in reference to the following time period: February 18, 2019 to August 12, 2019.

I am pleased to inform you that a decision has been made by the Deputy Minister of the OSW to provide access to some of the requested information. Access to some information contained within the records has been refused in accordance with the following exceptions to disclosure, as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act):

34. (1)(a)(i) The head of a public body may refuse to disclose information to an applicant if the disclosure could reasonably be expected to harm the conduct by the government of the province of relations between that government and the following or their agencies: the government of Canada or a province.

40. The head of a public body shall refuse to disclose personal information to an applicant where the disclosure would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's personal privacy.

As required by 8(2) of the Act, we have severed information that is unable to be disclosed and have provided you with as much information as possible.

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the decision to provide partial access to the requested information, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John's, NL A1B 3V8

Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309
Facsimile: (709) 729-6500
You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

Please be advised that responsive records will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the responsive records posted to the Completed Access to Information Requests website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.

If you have any further questions, please contact me by telephone at 709-729-2987 or by email at leannelane@gov.nl.ca

Sincerely,

Enclosures
Access or correction complaint

42.(1) A person who makes a request under this Act for access to a record or for correction of personal information may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting a decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request.

(2) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) A third party informed under section 19 of a decision of the head of a public body to grant access to a record or part of a record in response to a request may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting that decision.

(4) A complaint under subsection (3) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days after the third party is informed of the decision of the head of the public body.

(5) The commissioner may allow a longer time period for the filing of a complaint under this section.

(6) A person or third party who has appealed directly to the Trial Division under subsection 52(1) or 53(1) shall not file a complaint with the commissioner.

(7) The commissioner shall refuse to investigate a complaint where an appeal has been commenced in the Trial Division.

(8) A complaint shall not be filed under this section with respect to

(a) a request that is disregarded under section 21;

(b) a decision respecting an extension of time under section 23;

(c) a variation of a procedure under section 24; or

(d) an estimate of costs or a decision not to waive a cost under section 26.
(9) The commissioner shall provide a copy of the complaint to the head of the public body concerned.

Direct appeal to Trial Division by an applicant

52. (1) Where an applicant has made a request to a public body for access to a record or correction of personal information and has not filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42, the applicant may appeal the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request directly to the Trial Division.

(2) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (1) not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) Where an applicant has filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42 and the commissioner has refused to investigate the complaint, the applicant may commence an appeal in the Trial Division of the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request for access to a record or for correction of personal information.

(4) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (3) not later than 15 business days after the applicant is notified of the commissioner's refusal under subsection 45(2).

Susan,

In my previous role at PACSW, I was sitting on the NL Coalition against Human Trafficking. I wonder if you might want to reach out to the group that includes RNC, RCMP, THRIVE, Blue Door, Association for New Canadians, SANE nurses, PACSW, and other community organizations. https://www.nlcoalitionagainsthumantrafficking.com/

Megan, please weigh in if you know something Human Trafficking related services within JPS.

I’ll reach out to Anita Stanley (Victim Services) and Renee Byrne to see if they could help us gather more information.

I can’t really think of anything else.

I hope this helps (a bit). 😊

Hi Judit and Megan,

We received the email below as part of our Federal-Provincial-Territorial Ministers Responsible for the Status of Women. Given that JPS provides a number of services to those who have experienced or are experiencing human trafficking, I am hoping that you can provide some input into the attached short form. If you could get back to me by Monday, I would appreciate it.

Thanks

Hi Renee,

Thanks for offering some help! I don't think you could forward the actual survey because it is a FPT document but if you could gather some information about the organizations around the services they provide related to human trafficking, that would be immensely helpful.
Hi Susan:

We were just forwarded the questionnaire on human trafficking. Would this be a questionnaire I could distribute to members of GNL? Or have you already done so?

Thanks.

Hi

Sorry to be emailing again on this, but I don't think I can provide member's emails without their permission. And to be honest I wouldn't know all their roles and organizations. Maybe you can draft an email about the information you need and I can forward to the Chair to distribute and leave it to members to contact you directly. Does that sound okay?
