Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [OCIO/018/2019]

On Thursday September 12, 2019, Office of the Chief Information Officer received your request for access to the following records:

“information pertaining to RFP OCIO.1819.003 e-Procurement 1. What was the score of the highest Proponents going into the presentation. 2. What was the score of the highest Proponent's presentation. 3. Disclosure of how financial scores were calculated. 4. Release of successful Proponent RFP submission 5. Disclosure of successful Proponent - evaluation scoring by category 6. Evaluators notes / score cards for the highest short-listed Proponents that demonstrated 7. Award Report”

I am pleased to inform you that a decision has been made by the Chief Information Officer (CIO) for the OCIO to provide access to some of the requested information.

Access to how the financial scores were calculated was provided to you in a correspondence sent to you on June 7, 2019 in response to ATIPP Request OCIO-010-2019.

Access to the contract awards are publicly available on the Public Procurement Agency's website located on https://www.ppa.gov.nl.ca/tenders/awarded/2019/May_1,_2019-May%2015,_2019.pdf.

Access to the remaining records, and/or information contained within the records, has been refused in accordance with the following exceptions to disclosure, as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015 (the Act):

- S.31 (1)(l) – The report contains information that would reveal the arrangements for the security of property or a system, including a building, a computer system or a communication system.
- S. 35 (1)(d) –The report contains information, that if revealed, could reasonably be expected to result in significant loss or gain to a third party.
- S.35(1)(g) – The report contains information, that if revealed, could reasonably be expected to prejudice the financial or economic interest of the government of the province or a public body.
- S.40 - The report contains information that if disclosed, would reveal personal information to an applicant where the disclosure would be an invasion of a third party's personal privacy.

Please be advised that the following pages were removed from the report in its entirety and have not been included in the response, as they have been severed based on the applicable sections listed below:
