Dear [Redacted]:

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information
And Protection of Privacy Act [Our file #: ENV/018/2013]

On July 22, 2013, the Department of Environment and Conservation received your request for access to the following records/information:

"Period: 2006-2009

Surveys, maps, communications with cabin/fishing shack owners re buildings located on shoreline reserve in the Point au Mal, NL general area, specifically in the area depicted on the attached Crown Lands Division map. (The text of the attached submission, provided with your request has not been included here)."

We have conducted a thorough search of Department of Environment and Conservation records and have not been able to find any documents matching the description of those you specified in your request and attached letter. As such, please be advised that the Department has no records responsive to your request.

Section 43 of the Act provides that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review this response or you may appeal to the Supreme Court Trial Division. A request to the Information and Privacy Commissioner shall be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
34 Pippy Place
P.O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John’s, NL A1B 3V8

Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Facsimile: (709) 729-6500
In the event that you choose to appeal to the Trial Division, you must do so within 30 days of the date of this letter. Section 60 of the Act sets out the process to be followed when filing such an appeal.

Please be advised that this response will be published following a 72-hour period after the response is sent electronically to you, or five days in the case where the response is mailed to you. It is the goal to have the response posted to the Office of Public Engagement's website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.

If you have any further questions, please contact the departmental ATIPP Coordinator at telephone 709-729-7393.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
