Dear [Name]

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act File #EC/3/2013.

This is to confirm that on March 8, 2013, Executive Council received your request for access to the following records/information:

The list of people from across Newfoundland and Labrador who signed the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee congratulatory message book during 2012.

I am pleased to inform you that access to these records has been granted.

Please be advised that a list of names cannot reasonably be reproduced due to the large volume of signatures as well as the difficulty in accurately deciphering many of the signatures contained in the books. Access to these records is provided in accordance with subsection 15(b) of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act which states:

15. Where the head of a public body informs an applicant under subsection 12 (1) that access to a record or part of a record is granted, he or she shall

   (b) permit the applicant to examine the record or part of it, where the applicant requested to examine a record or where the record cannot be reasonably reproduced.

The books are available for your examination by contacting Elizabeth Day, ATIPP Coordinator, at (709) 729-5691 or by email at elizabethday@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,

Paula Burt
Deputy Clerk and Associate Secretary to Cabinet
