Dear Applicant:

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act FA/19/2016

On July 25, 2016, The Department of Fisheries, Forestry and Agrifoods (FFA) received your request for access to the following records:

"all information about notre dame seafoods in comfort cove newsted including permits issued since 1999 and mostly about all the illegal dumping that was going on for years"

This request was clarified on August 9, 2016 to include:

"I would like all permits issued for the dumping of offal since 2000 including all licences issued along with all fines that have been issued to notre dame sea foods comfort cove newstead"

Please be advised that the Deputy Minister for FFA has reviewed this request and FFA has no records responsive to your request.

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the decision to provide partial access to the requested information, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A

August 22, 2016
You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

Please be advised that this letter will be published following a 72 hour period after it is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the letter posted to the Completed Access to Information Requests website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.
