Dear [REDACTED]

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Act) [Our file #ENV/001/2015]

On January 12, 2015 the Department of Environment and Conservation received your request for access to the following records/information:

"Regulatory compliance request for a former Irving bulk fuel oil storage plant located at 319 Water Street, Harbour Grace. Requesting any information that your department would have on file for this site regarding: (1) past and present environmental permits issued for the property; (2) chemical spills and/or leaks at the property; (3) the presence, specifications, and permitting of fuel storage tanks (above and belowground); (4) historical uses of this property that may have impacted the property's present environmental condition (e.g. landfill, storage tank, farm, etc.); (5) non-compliance issues of an environmental nature regarding this property; and (6) other environmental issues that may have impacted the property's conditions."

Please be advised that our records indicate that the Department of Environment and Conservation has no record of past, pending, outstanding or ongoing orders or complaints related to compliance or any matter of environmental significance on file for the above mentioned property. There is one 9092 L fiberglass underground oily water separator and associated cement basin located on the property. The Storage and Handling of Gasoline and Associated Products Regulations, 2003 (GAP) approval number for this tank is AV-GAP-92-072956.

Section 43 of the Act provides that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review this response or you may appeal to the Supreme Court Trial Division. A request to the information and Privacy Commissioner shall be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:
In the event that you choose to appeal to the Trial Division, you must do so within 30 days of the date of this letter. Section 60 of the Act sets out the process to be followed when filing such an appeal.

Please be advised that this response will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five days in the case where the response is mailed to you. It is the goal to have the response posted to the Office of Public Engagement's website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Departmental ATIPP Coordinator at 709-729-7183 or courtneyblundon@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,

JAMIE CHIPPETT
Deputy Minister
