Dear Applicant:

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act FA/39/2016

On November 28, 2016, The Department of Fisheries, Forestry and Agrifoods (FFA) received your request for access to the following records:

1) what government viral testing was conducted in 2015 and 2016 on aquaculture salmonids and wild fish in NL, specifically which viruses, when, and using what sampling and testing methods. What known (globally) aquaculture salmonid viruses were not tested for including specific strains of a given virus.

2) what lice infestation rate monitoring and compliance testing was conducted by DFFA from 2014 to today including recorded lice amounts.

Please be advised that FFA is not obligated to answer questions of this nature, which do not contain the information necessary to locate records responsive to the request. Should you wish to submit a new request, please ensure you do so in accordance with Section 11 (2) (b), which states:

(2) A request shall

   (b) provide sufficient details about the information requested so that an employee familiar with the records of the public body can identify and locate the record containing the information with reasonable efforts; and

The Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act requires us to provide an advisory response within 10 days of receiving the request. As this request has been completed prior to day 10, this letter also serves as our Advisory Response.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request, as set out in section 42 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner

Making a request

11. (1) A person may access a record or seek a correction of personal information by making a request to the public body that the person believes has custody or control of the record or personal information.

(2) A request shall

(a) be in the form set by the minister responsible for this Act;

(b) provide sufficient details about the information requested so that an employee familiar with the records of the public body can identify and locate the record containing the information with reasonable efforts; and

(c) indicate how and in what form the applicant would prefer to access the record.
Access or correction complaint

42. (1) A person who makes a request under this Act for access to a record or for correction of personal information may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting a decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request.

(2) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16 (2).

(3) A third party informed under section 19 of a decision of the head of a public body to grant access to a record or part of a record in response to a request may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting that decision.

(4) A complaint under subsection (3) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days after the third party is informed of the decision of the head of the public body.

(5) The commissioner may allow a longer time period for the filing of a complaint under this section.

(6) A person or third party who has appealed directly to the Trial Division under subsection 52 (1) or 53 (1) shall not file a complaint with the commissioner.

(7) The commissioner shall refuse to investigate a complaint where an appeal has been commenced in the Trial Division.

(8) A complaint shall not be filed under this section with respect to

(a) a request that is disregarded under section 21;

(b) a decision respecting an extension of time under section 23;

(c) a variation of a procedure under section 24; or

(d) an estimate of costs or a decision not to waive a cost under section 26.

(9) The commissioner shall provide a copy of the complaint to the head of the public body concerned.

Direct appeal to Trial Division by an applicant

52. (1) Where an applicant has made a request to a public body for access to a record or correction of personal information and has not filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42, the applicant may appeal the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request directly to the Trial Division.

(2) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (1) not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16 (2).
(3) Where an applicant has filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42 and the commissioner has refused to investigate the complaint, the applicant may commence an appeal in the Trial Division of the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request for access to a record or for correction of personal information.

(4) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (3) not later than 15 business days after the applicant is notified of the commissioner's refusal under subsection 45 (2).
