Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act

On January 14, 2013, the Department of Innovation, Business and Rural Development received your request for access to the following records:

"All briefing books and other documents given to the new minister to brief him on departmental issues – and also briefing information for the Research and Development Corporation, and briefing information on the creation of the Office of Public Engagement."

Please be advised that access to these records has been refused in accordance with section 7(4), as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act):

This section states:

7(4) The right of access does not extend (a) to a record created solely for the purpose of briefing a member of the Executive Council with respect to assuming responsibility for a department, secretariat or agency.

Pursuant to this section, an applicant cannot request a minister's briefing book provided upon assumption of responsibility for a department, secretariat or agency for a period of five years from the date he or she has been appointed.

Section 43 of the Act provides that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review this refusal of access or you may appeal the refusal to the Supreme Court Trial Division. A request to the Commissioner shall be made in writing within 60 days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Information and Privacy Commissioner.
The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:
