Dear [Redacted]

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [JPS/123/2016]

On September 21, 2016, the Department of Justice and Public Safety received your request for access to the following records:

"Copies of the title/deeds for the various Newfoundland Memorial Parks, known as the Caribou Memorials in France and Belgium, and in particular the land that Padre Thomas Nangle purchased from the French for the Memorial Park at Beaumont Hamel. I also want to know the current ownership status of these locations."

Please be advised that the Deputy Minister for the Department of Justice and Public Safety has reviewed this request and the Department of Justice and Public Safety has no records responsive to your request. The Department has contacted a number of provincial employees, the provincial archives at The Rooms, staff at Beaumont Hamel, and staff at the Commonwealth War Graves Commission and has been unable to find records of original titles/deeds. The conjecture through three years of research by the provincial archives, and research at Beaumont Hamel itself, is that deed ownership was transferred to the Federal government during the Confederation process and are thus no longer held by the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John’s, NL. A1B 3V8

October 20, 2016
You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

If you have any questions, please contact me by telephone at 729-7906 or by email ncroke@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,
