Dear Applicant:

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act FLR/06/2018

On January 14, 2018, the Department of Fisheries and Land Resources (FLR) received your request for access to the following records:

"I would like to obtain a list of all properties sold by Municipalities in Newfoundland and Labrador through a "Tax Sale" (Municipalities Act 1999, Section 137 - 147) between the years 1999 to 2011 and it was later discovered that the "Crown" had a possible interest in these properties. The list should specify the name of the Municipality, the year of the sale, name of the purchaser and how this possible claim of the Crown was resolved in each case."

The Crown Lands Division does not keep any records of properties sold by municipalities. The Division does review requests from municipalities concerning potential tax sales, however once the review is complete the Division is unaware, and does not keep record of, whether the municipality actually sold the lands or not.

Please be advised that the Deputy Minister for FLR has reviewed this request and FLR has no records responsive to your request.

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the decision to provide partial access to the requested information, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner

Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309

You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

Please be advised that responsive records will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the responsive records posted to the Office of Public Engagement's website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.
