Dear [Redacted]

Re: Your requests for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015 [Our File #: EC/11/2015 & EC/12/2015]

On July 30, 2015, Executive Council received your request for access to the following records/information:

27(1)(i), 27(2)(b)

"We are seeking access to a specific document, namely [Redacted].

We believe that the information can be properly disclosed as per s. 29(3) of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015, SNL 2015, c A-1.2 given that it was published over 16 years ago. Alternatively, if this document is categorized as a cabinet record as per s. 27(1) of the Act, while presumptively impermissible for disclosure, the Clerk of the Executive Council is afforded discretion under s. 27(3) to disclose material where the public interest in the disclosure of the information outweighs the reason for the exception. Given the large number of students adversely impacted by the sudden closure of the Newfoundland Career Academy, and the general public interest in the circumstances surrounding this event, we believe that an exercise of discretion to disclose this document in its entirety would be appropriate in this instance."

Please be advised that a decision has been made by the Deputy Clerk of Executive Council that access to these records have been refused in accordance with the following exceptions to disclosure, as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015 (the Act):

27. (1) In this section, "cabinet record" means

(c) a memorandum, the purpose of which is to present proposals or recommendations to the Cabinet;

(h) a record created during the process of developing or preparing a submission for the Cabinet; and

(2) The head of a public body shall refuse to disclose to an applicant

(a) a cabinet record;

The Clerk of Executive Council has carefully examined and considered all records, materials and information associated with these requests and is satisfied that they do not meet the test for disclosure in accordance with subsection 27(3) of the Act.

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review this decision as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
