Thanks Lisa. This is a list of the charities we have supported which we will continue to support. The local food bank, the three churches on Bell Island. They are of the Anglican, United and Roman Catholic, Royal Canadian Legion, The Wabana Boys and Girls Club, The Sophia Wellness Centre, this is a local organization that helps people through the grieving process and provides comfort for older residents, The headstart program aimed at assisting in keeping this program going for children of parents who are depend on the social net. We also assist groups who preserve our heritage and culture on Bell Island. We will assist the two schools on the island with their extracurricular activities that pertain to the well being and advancement of their education. As examples, we provided a donation to the elementary school to help with the building of their school playground. The same will be true for the high school when eligible programs are brought to the board.

In essence the list is: the three local churches, the Boys and Girls Club, The Foodbank, Heritage and cultural groups that preserve our history that are beneficial to our community, culture and folklore, the two schools (elementary and high school), The Head Start Program (basically kids in need.), The Royal Canadian Legion, The Sophia Wellness Centre.

I hope this is some help to you and you need more clarification, you can of course reach me here or call me at

Thank you
