Dear [Redacted]:

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (File # NR-126-2018)

On August 20, 2018, the Department of Natural Resources received your request for access to the following records/information:

In the Uncle Gnarly blog of today's date there is a reference to "two-tier declining rates". Please provide any studies, reports, briefing notes etc on this subject.

On September 11, 2018, you advised that the timeframe for your request was August 20, 2017 to August 20, 2018.

The Department of Natural Resources have reviewed this request and conducted a search, which did not locate any responsive records specific to two-tier declining rates.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request, as set out in section 42 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner

You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act.

Please be advised that this letter will be published following a 72 hour period after it is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the letter posted to the Office of Public Engagement's website within one business day following the applicable period of time.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 709-729-0463 or rhynes@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,
