Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [IIAS 011 2018]

On September 19, 2018, the Intergovernmental and Indigenous Affairs Secretariat (Indigenous Affairs) received your request for access to the following records/information:

"All records relating to a July/August 2018 protest and blockade which was conducted by the Innu community, and staged in the vicinity of the Quebec/Labrador border of the Labrador West region (Schefferville area). Information to include, but shall not be limited to, records which reflect the concerns identified by the organization, as reasons for the protest, such as environmental impacts of resource developments in the region."

Please be advised that the Deputy Minister for Indigenous Affairs has reviewed this request and Indigenous Affairs has no records responsive to your request.

The Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act requires us to provide an advisory response within 10 days of receiving the request. As this request has been completed on day 10, this letter also serves as our Advisory Response.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your request, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John's, NL. A1B 3V8

Telephone: (709) 729-6309

Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309

Facsimile: (709) 729-6500

You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

Please be advised that this letter will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the letter posted to the Completed Access to Information Requests website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.

If you require any further questions, please contact me by telephone at (709) 729-7487 or by email at RCarter@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,

Ruby Carter
