Dear [redacted]

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [Our File #: HCS/024/2018]

On February 27, 2018, the Department of Health and Community Services (the Department) received your request for access to the following records:

“I am requesting details on medical assistance in dying, and the numbers for Newfoundland and Labrador. Specifically, how many requests for medical assistance have been made in this province since the federal government passed legislation, allowing eligible Canadian adults to request medical assistance in dying? How many of these requests were approved? And how many residents of Newfoundland and Labrador have died by medical assistance?

I am pleased to inform you that a decision has been made by John G. Abbott, Deputy Minister for the Department, to provide access to the requested information. Since June 2016, there has been a total of 23 requests in the province with 18 approved. The current provincial numbers for medically assisted death, per Regional Health Authority, are as follows:

Eastern Health: 11
Central Health: 6
Western Health: 1
Labrador-Grenfell Health: 0

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request, as set out in section 42 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner.

The address and contact information of the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:
Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John’s, NL, A1B 3V8
Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309
You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act.

The Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act requires us to provide an advisory response within 10 days of receiving the request. As this request has been completed prior to day 10, this letter also serves as our Advisory Response.

Please be advised that responsive records will be published following a 72 hour period after the response is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where records are mailed to you. It is the goal to have the responsive records posted to the Completed Access to Information Requests website within one business day following the applicable period of time. Please note that requests for personal information will not be posted online.

If you have any further questions, please contact the undersigned by telephone at 709-729-7010 or by email at MichaelCook@gov.nl.ca.

Sincerely,

Michael Cook
