Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act [Our File #: PB/319/2018]

On April 18, 2018, the Public Procurement Agency received your request for access to the following records/information:

"Copies of all bid proposals and/or Request for Proposal (RFP) responses (including proponent presentations) submitted to Service Newfoundland in relation to Request for Proposal SPPFA-01 Managed Print Services, issued by Service Newfoundland on or about May 31, 2013."

I am pleased to inform you that a decision has been made by the Chief Procurement Officer (interim) for the Public Procurement Agency to provide access to your requested information and the appropriate copies are attached.

Access to the remaining information contained within the records, has been refused in accordance with the following exceptions to disclosure, Report-A-2017-017 of the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner and as specified in the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act):

Section 40: Disclosure harmful to personal privacy

- (1) The head of a public body shall refuse to disclose personal information to an applicant where the disclosure would be an unreasonable invasion of a third party's personal privacy.

As required by 8(2) of the Act, we have severed information that is unable to be disclosed and have provided you with as much information as possible.

Please be advised that you may appeal this decision and ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the decision to provide partial access to the requested information, as set out in section 42 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner is as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John's, NL. A1B 3V8
